Foreword

With the intent of trying to produce a more meaningful book for you, we have dropped nearly all mention of groups, clubs, etc. . . . We have tried to capture not only the events of the year, but also the moods and emotions experienced by us all. So why not find a nice comfortable spot, put on some easy music, and just slowly go through and in between those pages; you just might experience that old feeling again.

Sincerely,

Robert Van Hill

EXIT 1 MILE

August . . . a new crop of Freshmen . . . trunks, clothes, the ever-present stereo, our spirits high . . . the return of the old student . . . renewing acquaintances . . . excitement . . . room assignments . . . unpacking, people, plants, and memories . . . meeting roommates . . . out on our own . . . tearful goodbyes.

*Registration . . . confusion . . . classes begin
. . . new books astound us, professors inform us, and the bookstore does fine . . . It's a new year. We're ready to meet the challenge — for a while.*

The tower of knowledge looms above the campus.
Card catalogues, periodicals, books, and books and books, all await the arrival of the reluctant student to conquer term and research papers.

There is so much work to do.
There is no time to have fun.

I'll work later!

That's Entertainment! The Rasteskellars endless supply of performers . . . Morning Song, Debra McCall, Steve Martin and Rain McKennon are just a few . . . the darkness, the ring of pinball machines, and beer all help to set the mood.

MAINTENANCE SUPPLY CO. INC.

For once, it is socially acceptable
to be our true selves.
At heart, there is still a bit of kid in us.

Along with dances, food, and crafts, the International Festival united people in a festive appreciation of other people's cultures.

There are still a few brave souls,
who think little of giving of themselves.
A special thanks to you.

UPB did an excellent job producing the entertainment in the Rathskellar this year. Morning-song, Debra McCall, Steve Martin, and Raun McKennan are just a few of the great performers that were seen, listened, and enjoyed by the students. From Jazz to Blues, Comedy to Blue-Grass it was all an experience in entertainment.
